Probation is utilizing two new officers to handle SAM (Student Attendance Mediation) and SARB (Student Attendance Review Board) meetings. It is part of Probation's early intervention efforts.

The Crisis Resolution Center saw 94 kids in 2011; only 10 went on to formal Probation services. More than 70 families are currently enrolled in Wraparound Services. Approximately 18 youth are enrolled in Drug Court – a trend upward. All are receiving Wraparound Services. Approximately 50 are in placement (Fresno, Camp Singer, and 8-9 are in Sacramento County sex offender programs). The census at JDF is in the mid 30's.

Commissioner Urquidez inquired about gang activity and whether or not gang task forces exist (Roseville PD utilizes a gang task force). Commissioner Molina inquired about Placer's utilization of AB12 (the extension of Foster Care to eligible youth). There are approximately six youth in Placer utilizing AB12 funding. Commissioner Shinstock inquired about Placer's Juvenile Justice Plan and the development of the Juvenile Justice Coordinating Council as required in AB118. Probation was unaware of AB118 requirements and would review that legislation and report back to the Commission. Commissioner Shinstock also inquired about the Restorative Justice model that was presented to the Commission in May, 2011. An update is still pending.
